

Documenting social processes and movements

The National Archives Norway and Tidsskriftet arkiv (www.tidsskriftetarkiv.no) are organizing the conference

On the 25th of September 2019
In Oslo at Riksarkivet, Wergelandssalen

PROGRAM:

- 1000-1010 Inga Bolstad, national archivist: Welcome
- 1010-1055 Tonia Sutherland, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa: Collecting for the Culture: Embracing Black American Archival Narratives to Support Transitional Justice and Human Rights.
- 1055-1140 Maria Utgés Vallespí, Arxiu Nacional de Catalunya: Projects concerning the Spanish Civil War, exile and Francoist repression. Experiences in the recovery of historical memory and the reparation of victims of repression.
- 1140-1200 Questions
- 1200-1245 Lunch
- 1245-1330 Bente Jensen, Aalborg City Archives: Collecting Social Photography. Connect to collect, the social dimension of collecting. (40 min – 5 min questions)
- 1330-1415 Andrew Flinn, University College London: Salvage and Dig: community-based archives & social movement approaches to archiving the past for the present and the future. (40 min – 5 min questions)
- 1415-1445 Coffee
- 1445-1530 Erik Aaberg and Espen Sjøvoll, the National Archives: The Social Media Project in the National Archives. Arrangements, objections, obstacles. Discussion. (40 min – 5 min questions)
- 1530-1615 Gudmund Valderhaug, editor Tidsskriftet Arkiv: Exit music: The Last Time. Looking backward, looking forward.